It was an alright way to waste 2 hrs imo. dont go to the outer realm, there is 1 npc, 3 types of mobs and nothing else there. im level 9152, and i cant gain xp anymore from what i can tell. hopefully they intend to make it an actual mmorpg but idk if the 1 person behind the game is going to or using this as jumping off point.. DO NOT BUY THIS. Took me 10mobs to level 2 > Got skill points > Got skill > Took me 1 mob to level 5+ > Mob dropped a shield that made me immune to any attacks from any monsters > Went straight to final boss level9000+ > Killed with 20aa > My level is 3500+ > Game is done. Ill point just a couple of Cons. - Achievements doesn't work - There is no point of Crafting system - There is no point of Shops - There is no point of Potions - There is no point of Gold - There is no point of Quests - Everything is extremely unbalanced. Example 1 - Potions restore 50-100hp, which is usefull exactly for 2minutes ingame till you get level up and everything that's possible(mentioned above) just loses value or any point of existence. Example 2 - Take quest that gives you 200exp(1lvl up) if you kill 10/10 your level mobs OR just forget about it and easily kill a mob 10 lvls higher and get 5lvl ups immediatly. Pros. - Well it runs. THERE IS NO POINT OF THIS GAME. MAXIMUM COST OF THE GAME SHOULD BE FREE.

Achievement System & More : Hey folks! I wanted to take a step back to redo the achievement system to align with an in-game implementation of this system. Client side achievements don't seem to be working for many of you so I will be sure to fix that first. This being said, the new update will be postponed to later, but this gives us more time to make it even better. I hope this way the wait will be quite worth it. I want to make the experience the best possible outcome and not rush something last minute just to provide a lousy update. So with that, I hope everyone can sit tight for some time to allow us to make the game much better.. Update 2: Release Date : Hey folks! We will be going live on October 31, 2018 (Halloween)! I hope everyone will find our first release to be enjoyable.. Patch 0.5.1: Bug Fixes : We are aware of many bugs you all found and are hard a work to making sure we patch things up by tonight!
